The World Basketball Association is pleased to announce the hiring of Chris Terrell as the Director of Basketball Operations. Chris brings a wealth of experience to the WBA family. He has been a general manager of a Fortune 500 company as well as a General Manager and Head Coach at the collegiate and professional levels domestically and internationally. Chris is also the owner and publisher of an international scouting and marketing company designed to provide scouting reports and promote the abilities of professional basketball players domestically and internationally. With experience as a business manager, manager of professional teams, head coaching experience, and an extensive background in operations, marketing, and development we feel that Chris will make a positive impact to the WBA in many areas. He will be in charge of working with current and prospective ownership groups, national sponsors, media outlets including television, radio and print mediums, scouting, and in concert with league President Leroy McMath and Commissioner Mike Glenn, will be working to promote the abilities of the players in the WBA for opportunities with the NBA and overseas. You can get more information on the World Basketball Association by visiting www.wbaball.net and/or contact Chris directly at director@wbaball.net
