ROOKIE FREE AGENT KYLE DAVIS SIGNS WITH NEW JERSEY

ATLANTA, GA. – This off season the New Jersey Nets and rookie free agent center Kyle Davis agreed to terms bringing the 6-10 center to play on the squad during the 2004-05 season.

The former Auburn Tiger and WBA standout was brought on to add size to the bench and help fill the void left by departed All-Star Kenyon Martin.

“Kyle performed well on our summer league team in Orlando,” said team CEO Rod Thorn. “He is an aggressive rebounder and shot blocker and we feel that he will provide us with additional depth at the center position.”

Prior to competing with the Rome Gladiators this past season, Davis was a standout performer during his collegiate days ranking second all-time in SEC history behind Shaquille O’Neal with 360 career blocks. He also led the conferences in blocked shots during all four years at Auburn.

The WBA season runs April, May and June with franchises in Rome, GA; Jackson, MS; Macon, GA; Peachtree City, GA; Bristol, TN; Elizabeth Town, KY and Raleigh, NC. The mission of the WBA is to teach, develop and expose basketball players to the NBA, NBDL, ABA, CBA and International Scouts while providing each community with an exciting brand of basketball and entertainment.
